

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

ON BEHALF of the WILD BIRDS

Throughout the long icy winter — help out their meagre diet with generous offerings of
GARDEN CENTER WILD BIRD SEED

This approved mixture contains canary seed, luscious peanut hearts, milo maize, steel cut oats, millet, and other nourishing grains, together with sunflower seed and the grit that is essential to digestion.

5 lbs. 75¢ 10 lbs. $1.35 25 lbs. $3.25 50 lbs. $6.25 100 lbs. $12.00

— and for dessert —

straight SUNFLOWER SEED

30¢ per lb.

$1.25 for 5 lbs.

The Chickadee Diner
An aerial picnic ground for small birds. Only the tiny birds can cling to its perchless sides.
$1.25

The Birds' Filling Station holds 2 suet cakes and over 4 lbs. of seed in the glass reservoir — special 4 point suspension prevents tipping and spilling of seed
$4.25

The Cape Cod Inn
A sparkling green and white painted revolving feeder. It is designed to turn with the wind so that the food is always protected from the elements
$12.95

Tid Bits — refills for the Chickadee Diner — 2 doz. $1.15

RUSTIC FEEDERS

2.50

1.50

— harmonize with the landscape and are sturdily built.

They hold both seed and suet.

A Window Feeder
for real winter-long entertainment

Its glass top protects the food and allows for leisurely study of the birds right on your own window
16" long — 4.50 24" long 5.95

Suet and Peanut Cakes crammed with energy giving food
3 cakes — $1.00

The Bishop Suet Rack
This rack is made entirely of wood for the birds' complete safety. It can be used for bread, suet, and, in the Spring, for nesting material — only 85¢

The GARDEN CENTER Inc.
53 LA SALLE ROAD
WEST HARTFORD 7
CONNECTICUT

WATCH FOR OUR '47 SEED CATALOGUE — READY SOON!

1947

Sec. 562, P. L. & R.

THE GARDEN CENTER

53 LA SALLE ROAD
WEST HARTFORD 7, CONN.

Library

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture
Washington, D. C.

